

Sept. 10th, 1926.

brings her meals to her. Mrs. Roehl pays $25. per month for the rent of her apartment at 63 Willow Street. Mrs. Cerrenmer stated that she quarrelled with Mrs. Gibson and wants nothing to do with her. She said her daughter played her dirty and called her a name that she did not care to repeat. The sister, Minnie Roehl, does not want to have anything to do with Mrs. Gibson either. They both claim she is no good. They both claim that as far as they know Mr. Easton is still living in New Brunswick and they consider him a very fine man. They further stated that Mr. Whitaker, is a bum and no good and is living up there some place with a woman now. That he works in the city stables.

Operative showed her the picture of Anna King and she stated that it is Mrs. Gibson when she used to play the banjo. She never knew her to have worked in music halls and stated that she had a picture like the one we have, but burned it up a few years ago as she never wanted to look at her face again. I asked her about the boy who is out there and she stated that he is Mrs. Gibson's son and not an adopted boy and that Mrs. Gibson never adopted a boy and girl in Trenton.

Operative then interviewed a Mrs. Von Rohdy at 66 Park Ave. and found her in an intoxicated condition and I could not understand what she was talking about. She is supposed to be a friend of Harry Ray.

Operative then went to Bayonne, N.J. to Police Headquarters and tried to interview either Chief O'Neil or Detective Rigney, who is in charge of the Bureau of Identification. Learned that Chief O'Neil is